

SHERIFF-CORONER PROGRAM DIRECTOR

FORENSIC

SUMMARY

WHO

We are law enforcement and defense department contractors who provide forensic medicine and pathology services globally. We are committed to excellence in the forensic lab services.

WHAT

This is a career defining opportunity for professionals with advanced experience in death investigation, law enforcement, or forensic sciences. You will be utilizing your expertise and skills in strategic problem-solving, data analysis, and death investigation to manage high-profile cases that impact our communities.

WHERE

We operate globally but are based in San Diego, California. We provide forensic autopsy services for the Sheriff-Coroner system across California, and process consultations from across the world.

WHY

At NAAG, you'll have the chance to lead impactful investigations that shape the future of forensic pathology. You will be part of a team that addresses real-world challenges in death investigation, working alongside top experts in the field. With NAAG, you're not just advancing your career — you're making a difference in communities across California.

WHEN

This is a full-time, permanent role with immediate openings. In this role, you'll be fully immersed in managing ongoing investigations, overseeing a dynamic team, and delivering forensic services across California.

Flexibility is key, as you will be expected to respond to case demands and travel on short notice. NAAG is ready for you to join our mission and make an impact—starting now.
